H. M. Butterley-F. Earle Hooper Memorial Award

The eighteenth annual award, for the best contribution to Southerly in creative writing or literary criticism, by a writer not yet established (e.g. he or she may not have published a book) was made to Geoffrey Bewley for his short story "The Visitors on the Beach" (No. 4, 1986). The judge, who took account of the four issues of Southerly preceding this one, was Mr Frank Davidson.
